

Biography of
Larry M. Hahn
Director, US Content Protection
Motion Picture Association of America, Inc.

Larry Hahn is a 29 year veteran US Federal Criminal Investigator Special Agent with the Drug Enforcement Administration, US Department of Justice. He served at various US postings including Resident Agent in Charge, Savannah, Georgia and Program Manager of a US enforcement initiative while in Washington, DC. During the last six years of US Federal service he was stationed in the US Embassy Singapore as the Country Attaché in charge of DEA operations in Singapore and Indonesia.

Subsequent to his federal law enforcement career Larry was selected by Seagram Asia Pacific headquartered in Singapore as Director of Commercial Security covering all of Asia. After the company disbanded he returned to the US and participated in the start-up training program of TSA Baggage Screeners. Thereafter, as a contractor for the US Justice Department he became Director of Training for the Jordan International Police Training Center in Amman, Jordan, the largest police training initiative in history, responsible for training the new Iraq Police Force. He then returned to Singapore as the Director of Security for a multi-national company.
