

Summary Bio

BRIAN WALTON

- Currently: Attorney-at-Law/Consultant/ Adjunct Law Professor/ Deputy Chair
British Academy of Film and Television Arts Los Angeles.
- 2004-2011 Adjunct Professor of Law. Teaches at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles;
Chapman University School of Law, the UCLA School of Law and Boston University-Los Angeles. Courses taught include Law and Practice with the Hollywood Guilds, Entertainment Law and other entertainment or IP related subjects.
- 2001 Chief Negotiator, Screen Actors Guild
2000 Executive Vice President, then President,
HollywoodBroadcasting.com, Los Angeles, CA
1999 Strategic Consultant, Producers Guild of America
1998-2001 Consultant, Writers Guild of America, Los Angeles, 1985-1998 Executive Director, Writers Guild of America [de facto chief executive, chief operating officer, chief negotiator and primary spokesperson for the WGA.] Also, member Policy Research Group of the International Affiliation of Writers Guilds, member Boards of WGA-Industry Pension and Health Plans, Vice-Chair, Franco-American Cultural Fund, Paris, France; Other.
- 1974- 1985 Attorney-at-Law, private practice. (Business litigation and transactions.)
- 1974 Law Clerk to Hon. J. Allan Crockett, Justice, Utah Supreme Court
- 1971-1974 J.D. University of Utah College of Law, Salt Lake City, UT
1969-71 M.A. Brigham Young University, Provo, UT
1966-69 B.A. (Honors), Brigham Young University, Provo, UT
1966 and before Preparatory education in London, England
- Memberships State Bar of California; LA County Bar Association; Beverly Hills Bar Association, Association International des Avocats du Droits d'Auteurs, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences; British Academy of Film and Television Arts.