

CLEVE LANDSBERG

Cleve Landsberg is a producer and unit production manager for feature films, television movies, and TV series. Cleve currently serves on the Directors Guild of America's National Board and the Association of Film Commissions International Advisory Board. He is also the former Chair of the DGA's AD/UPM Council West. In 2010, Cleve was honored by the Directors Guild of America with its Frank Capra Award for career achievement and service to the guild. Cleve has received an Emmy for visual effects for the TV series Cosmos and a Humanitas Award for William Faulkner's OLD MAN.

Cleve's film/TV credits include The Ultimate Gift, The Ramen Girl, Bruce Almighty, BASEketball, Dennis the Menace Strikes Again, Mr. Destiny, Weekend at Bernie's, Hallmark's William Faulkner's OLD MAN (Humanitas Award), Crazy Horse, On Promised Land, An Inconvenient Woman, The Broken Chain, Court-Martial of Jackie Robinson, plus TV series The District, Earth 2, and recently FlashForward.

Cleve is the creator of Cleve Movie Tools quick references, commonly found in studios and production offices. He began his career in live television at KTLA-TV in Los Angeles, working on the stage/remote crew. He holds both Masters and Bachelors Degrees from UCLA and is a U.S. Army veteran.